WASHINGTON PARK, April 28.—After having suffered three straight defeats to John McGraw's Giants, Manager Al Buckenberger and his collection of ball-tossers from Boston came to these grounds this afternoon, where they tackled Ned Hanlon's aggregation of young players.

The teams are slated to engage in four games during their present meeting, and there is no doubt but every one of the games will be bitterly contested from the moment the first player steps to the plate until the last man has been retired.

The clubs have always held a bitter grudge against each other, and as a result their every contest is a hot one. Those three defeats which the Beaneaters were compelled to accept from the Giants were certainly hard blows for them to receive, and in order to get revenge for those set-backs, they faced Hanlon's men determined to do all kinds of things to them.

Hanlon is very much elated over the playing which his team has been doing recently, and on that account he feels confident they will take at least three games from the Beaneaters.

The day was the most delightful one for a game of baseball that has been furnished by the weather man since the opening of the season. The sun's rays were warm, and besides there was enough wind stirring to make it decidedly comfortable for both the spectators and players.

Hanlon was undecided who he would put in to pitch against the visitors, but at the last moment he decided that Roy Evans had enough speed and control to beat them. Pittinger, the "Handsome" twirler of the National League, was selected by Buckenberger to pitch for his team. When the game started there were fully 2,500 persons present.

First Inning.
Dexter ambled on four wide ones. Tenney sacrificed. Strang throwing him out. Aubrey was thrown out at first by Dahlen. Dexter moving up to third. Cooley walked. He stole second, and on Jacklitsch's wild throw he caught Cooley's second. Dexter scored. Carney sent a fly to Sheppard. One run.

Strang laced the first ball pitched to right for a bag. McCready singled to short left, sending Strang to second. Sheppard flied out to Dexter and as Strang tried to reach third he was easily nailed on Dahlen's throw. Cooley reached third. McCready stole second, and on Kirtledge's wild throw he reached third. Householder was retired at first by Greninger. No runs.

Second Inning.
Strang laced the first ball pitched to right for a bag. McCready singled to short left, sending Strang to second. Sheppard flied out to Dexter and as Strang tried to reach third he was easily nailed on Dahlen's throw. Cooley reached third. McCready stole second, and on Kirtledge's wild throw he reached third. Householder was retired at first by Greninger. No runs.

Third Inning.
Carney's little grounder was taken out by Evans and Doyle. Sheppard made a pretty running catch of Bonner's scrapper in short left. Greninger trotted to first on wide ones. Kirtledge double along the third base line, scoring Greninger. Pittinger put a grounder to Strang, who touched out Kirtledge on his way to third. One run.

McCready was a victim on his grounder to Bonner. Sheppard laced a high fly to right, which Carney captured. Householder fanned the air. No runs.

Fourth Inning.
Dexter beat out a hit to the infield. Tenney sacrificed. Evans using his, bunt to Doyle. Aubrey was flied out at first by Dahlen. Cooley flied to third. Cooley walked. Carney went out. Dahlen to Doyle. No runs.

Fifth Inning.
Dexter beat out a hit to the infield. Tenney sacrificed. Evans using his, bunt to Doyle. Aubrey was flied out at first by Dahlen. Cooley flied to third. Cooley walked. Carney went out. Dahlen to Doyle. No runs.

GIANTS TAKE EARLY LEAD.

Gilbert swung the wagon tongue to the tune of two more runs. Mertes and Dunn romping home, while the visitor's center-fielder was playing with the ball. Brenahan and Taylor went out in one, two, three order on half-hearted hits to the infield. Five runs.

Second Inning.
Lauder heaved Hallman's drifter to third to McGinn. Hulsewit shook the pellet into Gilbert's glove. The silent pitcher was too good for his rival, Zimmer. No runs.

Brownie tapped a little bungle and then sprinted past it to first like a rocket. Van Haltron fell down before Zimmer's twisters. McGinn made up for it by smashing the horsehide into deep right, sending Brownie to the third pillow. Mertes fly to short, followed by a poor bunt of Dunn's, closed the inning without a score. No runs.

Third Inning.
Pettridge died on an easy roller to Gilbert. Lauders' slow throw allowed Thomas to drift to first. Dunn's fine pitch to McGinn cut Barry's corner. Then Brownie plucked down Wolverton's wind scower. No runs.

Lauder crushed one out that was easy for Barry. Gilbert got down first a mile ahead of his bunt. Thomas made a splendid backward run and pulled down Brenahan's skimmer. Pettridge's short drive. McCready was forced out at the bend on Thomas's crack to short. Two runs.

Fourth Inning.
Keister singled. Brashear followed suit. Hallman's high snicker was simple for Gilbert. Hulsewit raised up another that McGinn got under. Zimmer found Taylor for a hot smash to right that scored Keister. Brashear came home on Lauders' fumble of McCready's short drive. Pettridge was forced out at the bend on Thomas's crack to short. Two runs.

Fifth Inning.
Barry got to the first station on a bunt by slugging McGinn off the base while O'Day was asleep, but he met his doom at the bend on a poor essay at crime. Wolverton walks. The silent Taylor got real angry at O'Day and refused to play. Cronin taking his place. Wolverton also proved a poor thief out at second. Gilbert's beautiful catch of Keister's drive ended the half for the Quakers. No runs.

Sixth Inning.
Mertes died on a short fly to Brashear. Dunn singled. Lauders' slinger, moving Dunn to third. Gilbert was hit. And the triangle flied. Brenahan lined out a home run into the south bleachers, putting four runs. Cronin out from Wolverton to Hallman. Brownie to the morgue on a bunt. Four runs.

Seventh Inning.
Brashear sauntered. Hallman singled. Hulsewit fanned. Gilbert laced up Hallman and Zimmer. No runs. Van singled. Brashear brought down McGinn's short fly. Mertes lined out a three-bagger to the ropes, scoring Van Haltron. Dunn forced Mertes out at first. Dahlen flied to second. No run.

Eighth Inning.
Wolfe struck out. A Davis got another walk. He failed to steal second. Murphy was hit with M. Cross's help. No runs.

Ninth Inning.
L. Cross was thrown out by Courtney. Murphy helped to displace Seybold. Murphy's strike out victim. No runs.

Tenth Inning.
Hartsel made a fine running catch of Pulitz's fly. Williams was put out by M. Cross. Pickering was under Gantz's boot. On runs.

Eleventh Inning.
Courtney got Waddell's rap to first in time. Hartsel was safe when Wolfe dropped Gantz's toss of the Quaker hit. H. Davis' safety sent Hartsel home. Keister was under L. Cross's fly. Davis stole second and went to third on Courtney's wild throw to catch him. Seybold struck out. One run.

Twelfth Inning.
Wolfe fanned again. A Davis was helped out by Murphy. Keister lifted a fly to Pickering. No runs.

Thirteenth Inning.
Williams threw out Murphy. Pickering got two bases when Pulitz dropped his fly. Wolfe sent M. Cross's boulder home. Keister was under L. Cross's fly. Davis stole second and went to third on Courtney's wild throw to catch him. Seybold struck out. One run.

Fourteenth Inning.
Wolfe fanned again. A Davis was helped out by Murphy. Keister lifted a fly to Pickering. No runs.

passed Shreck's grounder to first. One run.

Third Inning.
O'Connor was out after rolling the ball to M. Cross. Howell drew a pass to first. Davis bunted. He went to sacrifice, but his hit rolled safely past Murphy and he was credited with a two-bagger. Keister walked. Keeler was caught trying to steal second. L. Cross helped Pulitz out. Two runs.

Fourth Inning.
Wade's hit to Courtney was an easy out at first. Hartsel got as far as second on his drive to left center. H. Taylor took care of O'Day and refused to play. Cronin taking his place. Wolverton also proved a poor thief out at second. Gilbert's beautiful catch of Keister's drive ended the half for the Quakers. No runs.

The Huguenot laid second to the turn with Coonsey and Bonaster next. As soon as they straightened out Colonay, the Huguenot and Zonaaster began a hot drive for the place and they finished as named, heads apart.

Hoboken vs. Philadelphia Giants.
The champion Hoboken baseball team will play the Philadelphia Giants, another colored aggregation of ball-tossers, at the St. George Cricket grounds in Hoboken on Sunday. The Philadelphia Giants is a strong team composed of the fastest collection of young colored athletes playing ball at present. They made a great showing through Pennsylvania in a year, defeating every team they

Joe Gans will leave for the West in a few days to begin training for his coming twenty-round bout with "Buddy" King, the Chicago fighter, which is slated to be decided before the Broadway Athletic Club, of Butte, Mont., on June 18. Although King is a good fighter, he does not class with Gans. The dusky champion is too clever for him, and on that account the latter is likely to receive his quietus in a few rounds.

Fordham to invade West Point.
The steamer Passaic will carry a large crowd of Fordham footers to the West Point-Fordham game at West Point to-morrow. Major Charles Thurston Greer, U. S. A., a brother of the Police Commissioner and commandant of military drill at Fordham, obtained the permission from the West Point authorities to land there. Most of the Fordham alumni and the greater part of the student body will compose the party.

POISONED BY MERCURY. There is hardly a day passes but that the specialist in the treatment of contagious blood poisoning is not called upon to FIRST remove the ravages of the mercury or potash from which his poor unfortunate patient is suffering. Most conscientious doctors will not administer mercury without first draining the patient of his effects, but they know of nothing better. Indeed, until the administering of the International Serum Toxin Co., St. James Building, New York, of the wonderful anti-toxin serum discovered by Dr. Francis A. Sieber, for the person afflicted with blood poison. There is now, for the first time in the history of civilization, a certain and scientific treatment for this terrible disease, and it is curing hundreds of blood poison sufferers hitherto pronounced incurable.
